32405 Write texts to communicate ideas and information

Credits: Five

OUTCOMES
1	Write meaningful texts for different purposes and audiences.
2	Use written language conventions to support communication.

Enter your National Student Number (NSN) and School Code in the box at the top of this page.

You should attempt ALL the questions in this booklet.

If you need more room for any answer, use the extra space provided at the back of this booklet.

Check that this booklet has pages 2–14 in the correct order and that none of these pages is blank.

Do not write in any cross-hatched area (). This area may be cut off when the booklet is marked.

YOU MUST HAND THIS BOOKLET TO THE SUPERVISOR AT THE END OF THE EXAMINATION.

QUESTION ONE – YOUR ADVICE IS NEEDED!

You belong to an online support forum where young people write in to ask for advice.

Charlie

My two best friends have had an argument and aren't speaking to each other. I feel caught in the middle. What should I do?

Tia

I can't fall asleep at night until it's really late, then I have trouble getting up in the morning to be on time. Any advice on how I can sleep better?

Ali

We moved to a new town and I'm going to start a new school next week. I won't know anyone and feel really nervous. Any advice?

Write a respectful response to ONE of these people. This could include acknowledging the problem, giving some guidance, and finishing positively.

Plan your writing, and check and edit your writing so it is clear for your reader.

Write between 150 and 250 words.

You will be marked on:

- length: writing a minimum of 150 words
- ideas: providing information and details that are appropriate for your audience and purpose
- structure: organising your ideas clearly and appropriately, with a clear beginning, middle, and ending
- language choices: choosing words and sentences that are appropriate for your audience and purpose
- accuracy: using correct spelling, punctuation, and grammar.
