INSTRUCTIONS

The materials in the resource booklet will enable you to become familiar with the theme and contexts of this examination: the significance of geographic location in a global context.

Your answers to ALL three questions must incorporate a wide range of case studies from around the world, as well as information and ideas BOTH from the materials provided in the resource booklet and from your studies in geography.

Information to answer any question can be taken from any resource.

Space for planning has been provided on pages 4, 10, and 16 to help you prepare your responses. The questions on page 3 are repeated on their respective planning pages.

QUESTION ONE

Natural environments are products of natural processes. Critically analyse the significance of geographic location on influencing natural environments.

Your answer must include:

- specific information from the resource booklet
- supporting knowledge and insight you have gained from your studies in Geography
- convincing communication
- relevant original and/or effective visuals, such as maps, graphs, and diagrams.

Use page 4 to plan your ideas, and begin your answer on page 5.

QUESTION TWO

Cultural environments are products of cultural processes. Critically analyse the significance of geographic location on influencing cultural environments.

Your answer must include:

- specific information from the resource booklet
- supporting knowledge and insight you have gained from your studies in Geography
- convincing communication
- relevant original and/or effective visuals, such as maps, graphs, and diagrams.

Use page 10 to plan your ideas, and begin your answer on page 11.

QUESTION THREE

With the future in mind, critically evaluate through a range of perspectives whether geographic location will have a bigger impact on the natural or cultural environment.

Your answer must include:

- specific information from the resource booklet
- supporting knowledge and insight you have gained from your studies in Geography
- convincing communication.

Use page 16 to plan your ideas, and begin your answer on page 17.
